MEMORANDUM

To: Mayor and City Council
From: Chris Pike, Finance Director
Date: November 16, 2009
Subject: Discussion of Vehicle for Hire License Fees Resolution

ITEM DESCRIPTION

To discuss a resolution adopting license fees for Dunwoody taxi operations

BACKGROUND

City of Dunwoody has adopted the Business Occupation Tax, Licenses and Regulations Ordinance, Chapter 15 of the City of Dunwoody Code of Ordinances, which provides, in Article 5, for the licensing of the operation of a taxicab businesses in the City.

ISSUES

Since the adoption of Chapter 15, Council has not previously passed a fee schedule; nor has any taxi operator inquired or applied for a license. During October, a potential operator approached staff regarding procedures for obtaining a license. Staff completed a study of area rates charged in Sandy Spring, DeKalb County, Johns Creek and Roswell. Staff determined the rates charged by each area are fairly consistent. The resolution provided for consideration reflects the rates charged by neighboring jurisdictions.

ALTERNATIVES

Council may adopt a similar resolution with an alternative rate schedule.

RECOMMENDED ACTION

Advise staff and provide feedback related to the taxi fee resolution.
