

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the Dunwoody Stage Door Players, as they were known in the beginning, was founded in 1974 as a Community Improvement Project of the Dunwoody Woman’s Club; and

WHEREAS, the first production of the Dunwoody Stage Door Players was “Mary, Mary” by Jean Kerr; their first musical was in 1979 with “Jacques Brel is Alive and Living in Paris”; and

WHEREAS, the community theatre performed in various locations until 1988, when a permanent home was realized in the North DeKalb Cultural Center; and

WHEREAS, Stage Door Players is Dunwoody’s only professional year-round theatre company, now opening their 36th Anniversary season with “Moon Over Buffalo” by Ken Ludwig.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ken Wright, Mayor of the City of Dunwoody, do hereby offer congratulations to the Stage Door Players on the occasion of their 36th Anniversary, and thank both past and present members for providing the greater Dunwoody area with a superior community-based professional theatre.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Dunwoody, Georgia, to be affixed, this 28th day of September, 2009.

City of Dunwoody Mayor

Ken Wright

Attest:

Sharon Lowery, City Clerk