

Heyward Wescott has been a Dunwoody homeowner since 1997. Heyward and his wife Kristen are proud to be going on 20 years of marriage. They have two wonderful daughters who attend DeKalb School for the Arts and Chamblee High School. Heyward has lived in Atlanta since 1979 and attended Paideia High School, Georgia State University and The Portfolio Center. Heyward has been in the sign industry for over 20 years. Embracing his entrepreneurial spirit, he launched Custom Signs Today in 1997.

Heyward traces his commitment to community service back to an unfortunate event that he later realized was a blessing in disguise. After their home was destroyed during the Dunwoody tornado of 1998, Heyward moved his family to Dunwoody Club Forest and dedicated his volunteer efforts to the community.

Below are just some of the highlights of Heyward's community involvement:
